

See it. Be it. Explore your Future Career

Providing middle and high school students the opportunity to learn about a variety of career paths

November 19, 2011 -- 10:00- 2:00 pm
Seattle Center Northwest Rooms

We invite you join us in learning about interesting and fun career options and meet people who can help you get there. If you attend a Seattle Public Middle or High School, you can begin exploring your career path at the 1st annual Career Exploration Event, hosted by the Seattle College Access Network (SCAN).

- ◆ Learn from people in the fields about the interesting and cool jobs that exist. Participate in sessions with an animation expert, a pilot, and a music agent who will be sharing information about their careers fields and demonstrating their work.
- ◆ Get information at the Resource Fair about programs, colleges, apprenticeships, and internships that will assist you achieving the career you aspire to.
- ◆ Win Prizes!
- ◆ Lunch and transportation will be provided.

It's never too early to begin discovering your career path today. We'll see you there!
