

Consider Training to be an Emergency Medical Technician
Full Scholarship for Training
Available for Diverse Students

Emergency Medical Technician training opportunities for traditionally underrepresented diverse students. The next training begins 8/15/12

Eligibility Requirements

- High School Graduate or G.E.D.
- At least 18 years of age by 8/15/12
- CPR certification (Training will be provided prior to start of class)
- Passing score on a pre-class first aid test (Training will be provided prior to start of class)
- Washington State Driver's License

Information

- Public Health Emergency Medical Services will supply needed equipment.
- The selected candidates must pass a background investigation.
- The selected candidates must have select immunizations. Arrangements can be made with Emergency Medical Services to acquire these.

For an application or additional information contact

Jim Duren (206) 940-2119

james.duren@kingcounty.gov